

PROGRAM

Conference Room Lecture

10:30 AM Opening by Constance C. Currie. Pres.

Long Island Wireless Historical Society

11 AM "History of Television" by Dr. Alexander Magoun,
Executive Director of David Sarnoff Library
From his book "Television" The Life Story of a Technology"

HILLWOOD HALL

3 PM at the Hillwood Lecture Hall

A live presentation of Orson Welles' "War Of The Worlds"

Performed by Hunterdon Radio Theatre

Preceded by Theremin demonstration by Rip Rosser used in early Sci-Fi films

Audio courtesy of Associated Audio Service of Huntington Station

WCWP RADIO STATION

Follow signs to Station - OPEN FOR TOURS

Guests are invited to speak "on the air" at the

CWP Post FM station or contacting the world via Amateur Radio

Exhibits

See, hear and operate The Peconic Amateur Radio Special Event Station W2R
Radio Central Amateur Radio Club - Thru The Years Ham Radio Equipment Display
Long Island Wireless Historical Society, Sayville Historical Society
Rocky Point Historical Society. Civil Air Patrol
Fire Island Lighthouse Preservation Society, L. I. Mobile Amateur Radio Club
Grebe Radio, Coast Guard Radio, Long Island N-Track Model Railroad,
Radio Controlled Model Aircraft By "Wingnuts" Grumman retirees
Radio Spirits: Old Time Radio Programs, Crystal Set Radio by The Xtal Set Society
Spark Transmission Demonstration by George Flanagan
Antique Radios dealers: Rob Loeser, Ed Mottle, Tom McCawley
SUSB, Stony Brook University Radio station, WRHU, Hofstra University Radio Station
Salvation Army Emergency Radio "SATERN", Verizon Telephone Pioneers
Freeport Historical Society—WGBB L. I.'s 1st Broadcast Radio Station
Long Island Radio Station Memorabilia by Mike Erickson of WFAN

Door Prize

1 year subscription to WorldRadio Magazine courtesy of WorldRadio, Inc.

Many thanks to all the volunteers and display table hosts

